Committed 2 Community (C2C) mission is to support the San Francisco community by producing participatory events and programs that will raise money for local non-profit organizations or provide needed services for underserved communities. C2C produces The San Francisco Marathon™ and West End Management events. All net proceeds from The San Francisco Marathon and West End Management provide support for C2C programs.

High School Program

In an effort to promote community service and support high school athletics and extra-curricular activities, Committed 2 Community offers volunteer opportunities to high school students.

Youth Run4Fun

Youth Run4Fun, managed by Committed 2 Community is dedicated to establishing sustainable community-based running and fitness programs for youth of all shapes, sizes and cultures that enhance physical health, emotional well-being and personal achievement, with a focus on underserved populations of the San Francisco Bay Area. Under the umbrella of YR4F are the JUST RUN® San Francisco program, and various track & field events.
